(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether the chemists are following the same; and

(d) he reasons behind issuance of such an order?

THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI SHATRUGHAN SINHA): (a) Government of India has not issued any specific orders to be complied with by the chemists. However, the chemists are required to comply with the provision under the Drugs and Cosmetics Rules, 1945, in respect of sale of drugs while discharging their duties.

(b) to (d) Questions do not arise.

Two-child norm

1240. DR. M. N. DAS: Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to make any comprehensive plan to control population explosion in the country;

(b) whether it is a fact that the two-child norm is being considered as not feasible; and

(c) if so, the other norm conceived in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI A. RAJA): (a) the Government has adopted, the National Population Policy (NPP) in February 2000 which envisages certain National Socio-demographic Goals to be achieved by 2010 for paving the way for a stable population in the country by 2045, at a level consistent with the requirements of sustainable economic growth and social development. It provides a policy framework for advancing goals and prioritizing strategies during the next decade, to meet the reproductive and child health needs of the people of India, and to achieve net replacement levels (TFR=2.1) by 2010.

(b) and (c) The National Population Policy 2000 (NPP 2000) does not specifically adovocate a 'two child norms'. it affirms the commitment of Government towards stabilizing population of the country by allowing its citizens to make voluntary and informed decisions about their family size.
